PLANS FOR NEW SURGERY UNIT ALMOST READY

Atty. Richard A. Brown, president of the Annie M. Warner Hospital, told the hospital directors at their meeting Thursday evening that plans for the new surgery unit are nearing completion.

"The new building committee and members of the surgical staff will meet April 11 at which time a final review of the plans will be made prior to preparation of the working drawings and specifications. It is anticipated that the project will be ready for bidding early in the summer," Brown said.

The surgery unit, which is the final phase of the hospital's modernization and expansion program, will be located on the second floor of the north wing. Estimated cost of the structure and equipment is about $250,000.

Review Budget
In their meeting the hospital directors received various committee reports and were given a preview of the anticipated budget for the fiscal year 1960-1961 which starts June 1. Expenses are estimated at $699,822.42 of which $408,436.32 is for salaries and wages and $291,386.00 for other operating expenses.

Earned income is projected at $770,227.46 which anticipates $60,000 in free services thus projecting a narrow margin of $10,405.04 of cash income over expenses.

The new snack bar, located off the former sunporch of the Musselman Annex, is now in service. Members of the Women's Auxiliary, which operates the snack bar, were reported pleased with this new facility.

Administrator Dillon told the directors that many compliments are being received on the food at the hospital.

Census Taker Calls On Ike As Big Count Begins

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower met the census taker today for the first time in his life. He dutifully reported that he has a bathtub, hot and cold water, and doesn't pay rent.

To kick off the big house-to-house head count, two census takers called at the White House shortly after breakfast. He picked up from the 69-year-old chief executive the required information about the Eisenhowers and the only other regular White House resident, Mrs. Eisenhower's 74-year-old maid, Rose Woods.

When the enumerators entered his office, Eisenhower looked up and said, "I wonder if you've started a pool all over the nation on the number of people in the census."

District Supervisor There
The residents were counted by Louis Alexis, the district census supervisor for Washington, assisted by Census Director Robert H. Burgess.

In the 1950 census, former President Harry S. Truman was counted by a rank-and-file enumerator. Recalling his long Army career, the President said he assumes his various post commanders must have filed previous census reports on him and Mrs. Eisenhower.

Nuclear Test Ban Is Near

GENEVA (AP)—A ban on nuclear test weapons appeared closer today than at any time since the United States, Britain and Russia began negotiating for a treaty 17 months ago. But months of hard bargaining probably still remained.

The next big move will come when Soviet Delegate Semyon Tsarapkin gives the full Soviet reaction to the Camp David plan.

Macmillan, reporting to the House of Commons in London on his visit to Eisenhower, said today he has hopes a test ban treaty will be concluded "within a reasonable time."

The Camp David plan calls for a ban on all nuclear explosions in the air, in the seas and on the ground, and on underground explosions above a certain size, following agreement on a control system, and for a moratorium of not too long duration on smaller underground explosions while scientific studies are made of ways to detect such underground blasts.

7 GROUPS TO GATHER DATA FOR INDUSTRY

The subcommittee of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce gathering area data in order to have full information available to committees seeking to secure new industries here divided into seven "categories" Thursday afternoon at a luncheon in the Peace Light.

E. H. Blettner of the Metropolitan Edison Co. described to the group the electric power available to the area for various types of industry.

Chairman James P. Hayes outlined the need for obtaining information on the general area surrounding Gettysburg, noting that few sites would be available in the borough itself, while many could be obtained in the general area surrounding the town. Industry within a few miles of Gettysburg is of as vital importance as industry immediately within the borough, he said, adding that the Chamber of Commerce is seeking to develop the Gettysburg area, rather than confine itself to the borough alone.

The subcommittees chosen were listed as: Filing and cataloging information, Philip Dunn; brochure, William Lentz and Ralph A. Bailey; site listing, Dr. John J. Knox and R. W. Wentz; labor availability, George M. Zerling and Jacob C. Bricher; existing housing and manufacturing facilities, H. A. Jones; typography and maps, James T. Hayes; legal, taxation, licensing and registration, Attorney E. V. Bullett.

BROWN HEADS COMMITTEE FOR LAW DAY

Attorney S. M. Raffensperger, president of the Adams County Bar Association, today announced the appointment of Attorney Richard A. Brown as chairman of a committee to coordinate the community observance of Law Day USA, Sunday, May 1.

This is the third year for the national observance of Law Day USA by Presidential proclamation. However, this is the first time that Law Day has fallen on a Sunday, and Raffensperger pointed out that, accordingly, this year's observance will place special emphasis on the role that law has played in achieving and maintaining religious freedom.

The Bar Association official said that the purpose of Law Day is to foster respect for the rule of law in our way of life and not, as some mistakenly suppose, to honor lawyers and the legal profession.

"In his Law Day USA proclamation," Raffensperger explained, "President Eisenhower urges the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies 'as a public demonstration of their devotion to the rule of law as the keystone of peace and order in our national and international life.'"

"The Law Day committee of the Adams County Bar Association will attempt to further this aim by assisting and cooperating with church and civic leaders and representatives of other organizations in the community in developing a widespread and meaningful Law Day USA celebration."

Attorney Charles W. Wolf will serve on the special committee with Brown.

All three young men escaped injury in the crash and Rosenberry's companions directed traffic until police arrived.

$1,000 Fire On Saturday Cut Phone Service: All long-distance telephone service from Gettysburg east was cut off Saturday afternoon and the early part of the night as the result of a fire-damaged cable at the rear of the York street property at which Victor A. "Swifty" Palmer resides.

A barn at the rear of the property was completely burned in the fire with a loss estimated at about $1,000. The warm rays of a bright spring sun passing through glass bottles onto dry and very inflammable paper and other material in the loft of the two-story frame barn on the Palmer property caused the fire which destroyed the building.

Today's Talk

WITH A CLEAN MIND
The start of a day should be one of triumph. The start is the key. All else is tuned to it. It's the same as in an athletic contest. The starters tell the story. How important it is that we arise from our sleep with a clean mind in which to face the new day. Glean all hope, courage and high purpose!

A triumphant traveler is a confident one from the moment he looks into the face of the sunrise. Nature will greet you, and all the children of her realm. Her smile will be as a benediction! Every evidence of God's love and attention will welcome you into that fresh and stimulating start. With a clean mind, with brave intentions, and with a cheerful outlook, life's meanings will begin to take charge of and introduce you to the best in life. What a welcome! All regrets will flee and all fears will melt away, as they do with a triumphant person. Make that clean mind one of decisions, and courage. You will be the recipient of God's attentions, and He will look after you as He does the sparrows who nest about your home. What an asset to the clean mind and patient heart!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Art In The Heart".

Just Folks

TODAY
I hold that we've a mortal right To have our share of jollity;
Too much of trouble rules the day,
Too brief our moments of good nature.

Too few the laughs that come to us,
Too long the hours we spend in grieving.
There is too much to make us swear,
Too much of sorrowful departing.

We puff with pride o'er what we do,
And marvel that we could have done it;
And when a little care we see
We wail because we may not dodge it.
We break our backs in bearing straws;
We glorify each little winning;
When, if to weigh it all we'd stop,
Much that we do would set us laughing.

And so I hail this honest day
When wise men tumble to their folly,
When children playing on the road
Trap sages and are very merry.
I could have done this thing in rhyme,
But now it's time for me to leave you;
Beware each minute of the day
Or other folks may April Fool you.

DEER SEASON CONTROVERSY IS FORECAST

By BILL GIBSON
HARRISBURG (AP)—The president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs expects long and heated argument over deer season regulations when the members gather for a two-day convention.

Oscar A. Becker, West Reading, added: "It may get hot." A resolution to abolish the antlerless deer season this year is one of the 42 proposals delegates will discuss in business session. The contention that tentative date for the regular deer season are too close to Christmas also is expected to get a good going over.

Directors Meet
Directors of the federation met here Thursday night to go over reports and make plans for the convention. During the morning, federation committee members and other delegates scheduled meetings with various state department heads and other officials.

Becker said officers of the federation felt the State Game Commission knew what it was doing when it made deer hunting regulations. "They must reduce the herd to the carrying capacity of the range," he said. "When you can come back year after year and kill an average of $100,000 deer, there's still deer around."

Touchy Subject
Becker said some of the criticism came from members who wanted to stand on the side of the road beside their car and be able to get a deer.

On the other hand, Becker conceded that the Fish Commission was a touchy subject. "We're just letting them go ahead," he said. "We're playing a hands-off policy until something is decided."

A legislative investigation of the Fish Commission was held last year after fishing license sales fell off some 12 per cent in two years. Early this year, the commission requested the resignation of executive director William Voigt. A new executive director has not been selected.

Called "Provincial"
Becker said he did not want to rekindle the controversy caused by his remarks before the House investigating committee but, he added he has not changed his opinion. The Berks County sportsmen had said he felt the Fish Commission was too provincial in its ideas, that each commissioner was an executive director in his own area.

After Voigt was relieved, Becker said he felt the executive director was used as a scapegoat. "Firing Bill Voigt does not cure the evils existing within the commission," he said.

Becker said that both acting executive director H. R. Stackhouse former administrative secretary, and assistant executive director A. Z. Hazzard, biologist and fish management specialist, were good men.

Tom Nieporte Leads $15,000 Azalea Open

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Tom Nieporte of Bronxville, N. Y., led by three strokes going into today's second round of the $15,000 Azalea Open Golf Tournament.

The 30-year-old Nieporte, playing without benefit of a practice round, buzzed around the Cape Fear Country Club course's 6,651 yards in 64 Thursday's first round. His 32-32 card was eight under par and put him three shots ahead of his nearest rivals, Jerry Barber of Los Angeles; Gray Brewer of Crystal River, Fla.; and Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla.

Helen Fields, 39, who lived on the first floor, was treated at a hospital for cuts and bruises, then released.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

"COUNTING SHEEP"

At night when Ellen nestles in her bed to go to sleep... she calls her daddy to her side... to help her to count sheep... together we count on and on... until I'm tired too... the sandman sprinkles magic sand... that brings sweet dreams in view... so side by side we drift upon... the stream of peaceful rest... pretty Ellen and her dad... have almost reached the crest... all's quiet, save the ticking of... the clock upon the shelf... perhaps I'd better take a look... at my dear little elf... but as I turn to ascertain... if she is fast asleep... up pops Ellen and she says... "Come on, dad, let's count sheep."

Claims Shelters Won't Stop Foe

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Underground shelters would not deter an enemy intent on wiping out a city, the governor of New Jersey says. Gov. Robert B. Meyner also maintains that it would be "fostering a cruel deception on the American people if we try to persuade them that they can have a civilian defense through underground shelter in the next war."

Gov. Rockefeller of New York had proposed that New York property-owners be required to build shelters as a protection against nuclear fallout. The Legislature killed that plan and Thursday it rejected Rockefeller's substitute proposal for voluntary construction of shelters.

Meyner did not mention Rockefeller's proposal Thursday night in a speech at the 25th annual Northeastern Dairy Conference, although it was apparent he was referring to the plan.

Suggests Change In Policy Of ICC

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission should suspend rate changes of common carriers while it investigates their effect on competing producers, says a Pennsylvania steel producer.

C. X. Coyle of the Alan Wood Steel Co., Conshohocken, Pa., told a Senate Commerce Subcommittee Thursday the commission has "not fully discharged its obligation to disallow decreases that are proposed by one carrier solely to meet the competition of a different mode of transportation."

The committee is considering on whether legislation is needed to give relief to various types of carriers.

Good Deer Hunting Can Be Controlled

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania will have many years of reasonably good deer hunting if the size of the herd is held within the bounds of its natural food supply, says the executive director of the State Game Commission.

M. J. Golden said Thursday controlling the herd can best be done by adequate yearly harvests by hunters and by providing continuous supplies of browse for the deer.

The harvest would include a certain number of antlerless deer when the herd is too large for its food supply.

"Most true sportsmen will agree that it is better to control deer numbers through harvest by hunters than by winter kill," Golden said.

The record low temperature in the United States was measured at Rogers Pass, Mont., Jan. 20, 1954. It was 69.7 degrees.

WANTS YOUTH WORK PUT ON LOCAL LEVEL

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
Associated Press Special Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of Pennsylvania's delegation to the White House Conference on Children and Youth are anxious to begin their work at the local level, says Mrs. Ruth Grigg Horling, state secretary of public welfare.

"Our turnout of more than 350 delegates and observers and their active participation all week indicates their great enthusiasm," said Mrs. Horling, who heads the delegation.

The conference, in its final session today, has not sought to bring out anything new in the field of youth welfare, she said, but has served to focus attention on well-known problems.

"National Crisis"
"What it has done actually is highlight what we're trying to do all the time," Mrs. Horling said. Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) told the Pennsylvania delegation Thursday the burdens of our schools constitute a national crisis.

"Yet every year, the struggle must again be waged for a federal aid to education bill." The recommendations of the Pennsylvania group call for increased counseling services starting at the elementary school level and for more facilities for early detection of physical, mental and emotional defects of children.

Ask Coordination
Also recommended was further coordination between all groups having to do with any phase of child or youth welfare at community, county and state levels. Another recommendation called for strengthening of family and religious life.

Mrs. Horling said the first follow-up on Pennsylvania's participation in the conference will come next week when the State's Welfare Forum holds its annual meeting at Harrisburg.

She said five state department heads and cabinet members who have been attending sessions here this week will outline to the Forum ways and means of implementing White House Conference recommendations at the state and local level.

Pennsylvania's Flooding Streams Begin To Recede

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Western Pennsylvania's flooding rivers, creeks and streams tapered off today and slowly began to recede.

The Allegheny and Monongahela rivers crested late Thursday in their upper reaches. The crests moved downstream during the night and passed Pittsburgh early today.

The Ohio River, formed in Pittsburgh by the Allegheny and Monongahela, crested in the Steel City at 27.7 feet. This was 2.7 above the 25-foot flood stage.

French Creek leveled off at Meadville at 60.6 feet after rising 3.3 feet above flood stage and surrounding 800 to 900 homes with water.

The Allegheny and Monongahela swollen with rain and melted snow from a spring thaw, spilled into several low-lying streets in Pittsburgh and seeped into several homes. Railroad tracks were covered in some spots.

Meadville Hard Hit
Hardest hit was Meadville where French Creek covered the city's 5th Ward. West side and southern sections with water that was hip-deep in some places.

Despite the fact that water spilled into cellars and lapped at the doorsteps of their homes, hundreds of Meadville residents decided to stay in their homes.

Boats and two Army amphibious
The Allegheny caused only minor trouble in low spots at Oil City and Franklin. The river leveled off below flood stage at Oil City and crested only one foot above flood level at Franklin.

River traffic on the Monongahela had been halted due to the high water. Army Engineers reopened lock gates at Brownsville and Charleroi to boats again today.

Bullets Drop Opener To Villanova 10-5; Play At Lebanon Valley Saturday

A wet, rainy afternoon was enough to put the damper on the Gettysburg College baseball team as the Bullets dropped their initial contest of the year to Villanova, 10-5, Thursday afternoon on the winner's field before a large crowd. Seventeen Bullets were strikeout victims.

Gettysburg fell behind in the opening inning, but was never out of the picture until the eighth inning when the Wildcats tallied four runs to put the game on ice.

Coach Bob Hulton's squad went scoreless during the first two frames while Villanova crossed the plate once in each frame. Fred Anthony led off with a walk in the first followed by Ed Monahan's sacrifice bunt. An infield miscue put Bob Klinch on second and sent Anthony home. In the second frame Bill Platco led off with another walk, Joe Cramer looped an infield single and Frank Kreutzer advanced the runners with a perfect bunt. Anthony then belted a sacrifice fly to center driving in Platco.

Bullets Tally
The Bullets broke the ice in the third when, with one out, Jeff Kahler drew a walk, Fred Mueller struck out, and Ken Fruchter clouted a double to deep left driving in Kahler.

The home team registered another run in the bottom of the fourth when Don Melega took first via an infield error, went to second on a passed ball, continued to third on a wild pitch and romped home on Anthony's infield sacrifice. Villanova made it 6-2 by crossing the plate three times in the next two frames on three walks, two hits and a pair of wild pitches.

Gettysburg added a run in the sixth when Fruchter drew a walk and went to second on a wild pitch. Hawkins walked followed by Bill Hoffman's line single over second, driving in Fruchter. The Bullets came to within one run as they tallied three times in the seventh. With one out, Kahler, walked, Mueller singled to center, Fruchter and Burnett walked and Mel Jacobs lashed another safety to right.

Villanova exploded for four runs in the bottom of the eighth on three hits, including a double to left by Anthony, two walks, a wild pitch and a passed ball.

Mueller Nabs Runner
One of the outstanding plays of the game came in the bottom of the fifth when Villanova's Joe Mueller nabbed runner.

SIEBERN GOES GOOD AT FIRST FOR ATHLETICS

By JIM KENSIL

Associated Press Sports Writer

Norm Siebern became so stunned in the New York Yankees' outfield his batting began to fade.

Now the 26-year-old left-handed hitter is on first base for the Kansas City Athletics, and he's hitting a rosy .373 with team-leading spring totals of 4 home runs and 20 RBIs.

Manager Bob Elliott put Norm on first for the first time Thursday and the ex-Yankee responded with a homer, a double and three runs batted in as the A's defeated the Baltimore Orioles 5-4 at West Palm Beach.

When New York Manager Casey Stengel let Norm out of the doghouse late in the '59 season, Siebern played the final two games at first, finishing 1.000.

Norm Is Benched

But his work in Yankee Stadium's treacherous left field was something else. Norm played in 134 games in 1958, his first year as a regular, and carried a .300 batting average into the World Series. Then Milwaukee fly balls, aided by high winds and a beaming sun, began dropping all over left field. Norm was benched.

Last year he hoped things would be different, but his outfielding became so unsure that his hitting followed suit. Stengel finally benched him.

Then the Yankees traded Siebern, Don Larsen, Hank Bauer and Marv Throneberry to the A's for Kent Hadley, Joe DeMaestri and Roger Maris, the left fielder they wanted.

May Oust Throneberry

Norm promised he would hit again once he was away from the Yanks. If he continues, and he can play the bag, it will cost Throneberry a job that had been virtually handed to him by the A's who had a collection of four unimpressive first basemen last year.

Hadley homered for the Yankees Thursday, as did Tony Kubek, but that was all for New York as the Detroit Tigers took over Mark Freeman for four first inning runs in a 5-2 victory at Lakeland.

In other Florida games, the St. Louis Cardinals moved to the top of the exhibition standings with a 7-5 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates at St. Petersburg, and the Milwaukee Braves edged the Washington Senators 7-6 at Orlando.

In Arizona, the Chicago Cubs shaded the Boston Red Sox 4-3 at Mesa, and the Cleveland Indians rallied to whip the San Francisco Giants 11-10 at Tucson.

Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and the Chicago White Sox were not scheduled.

PIRATES ARE TRYING 40-YR. OLD HURLER

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—When the Pittsburgh Pirates call teammate Diomedes Olivo by his nickname of Guayubin they could be asking him an obvious question.

Guayubin sounds something like "where you been." It's a fair question to put to the 40-year-old rookie.

"I start when I am boy of 5 or 10 with pickup teams at home in Dominican Republic at Guayubin," Olivo said Thursday. "My papa have a ranch. When I put the cows away, I go into town to play."

He didn't start playing for money, though, until he was 27. A year later he got a look from the Chicago White Sox. In 1955 he was with Havana of the International League for a few weeks. Then was sold to the Mexico City Reds. Last year he was with Poza Rica.

"I win 21 and lose eight," he said.

Olivo, described by some of his teammates as "an old left-hander who can throw like the devil," started for Pittsburgh against St. Louis Thursday at St. Petersburg, but he didn't fare too well as the Pirates lost 7-5.

In three innings he gave up two runs on five hits.

Al Jackson, however, was charged with the loss when the Cards scored four runs — three of them unearned — in the eighth inning.

The loss was the Pirates third in a row and dropped them into second place in the National League grapefruit standings.

The Pirates play Kansas City at Fort Myers today.

Penn State Gets Memorial Award
NEW YORK (AP)—The Collegiate Basketball Officials Assn. announced Thursday Penn State would receive the Sam Schoenfeld Memorial Award for displaying the best sportsmanship among eastern college basketball teams the past season.

Runners-up included West Chester State College.

The award was instituted in memory of one of the association's charter members.

4 Quarterfinal Games Go Tonight

FRANKLIN, Pa. (AP) — Four quarter-final games are on tap tonight in the national YMCA basketball tournament.

They are Atlanta, Ga., and Orange, N. J.; Franklin, Pa., and Buffalo, N. Y.; Springfield, Mo., and Michigan City, Ind., and Lexington, Ky., and Pittsburgh.

Atlanta and Franklin advanced into the quarter-final round with victories Thursday night.

Atlanta defeated Norwich, Conn. 99-80. Coleman Hillary's 28 points sparked the winners.

Franklin downed Butler, Pa., 86-67 in a game in which Butler was held to 26 points in the second half. High scorers for Franklin were Tony Stillson with 24 points and Chuck Davis with 23.

QUINN FEELS PHILLIES WILL LEAVE CELLAR

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)

—This is no April fool's joke. General Manager John Quinn is dead serious when he predicts that the Philadelphia Phillies will climb out of the National League cellar this year.

"I definitely think we have an improved club and I feel confident that we won't finish last year," asserts Quinn, who is embarking on his second season as GM of the Phillies after a highly successful stint with the Milwaukee Braves.

"Not Too Sharp"

Quinn concedes the Phillies haven't looked too sharp in exhibition games thus far and their 9-9 record isn't too impressive but he explains:

"We have had a lot of new players to look over. Eddie (Manager Eddie Sawyer) hasn't played a set lineup because we're trying to find out about these fellows."

Quinn, who has done more than his share of trading since taking over as general manager of the weak hitting and fielding Phillies, is pinning his hopes on newly acquired players and a crop of promising young rookies.

The Phillies open a three-game series tonight with the Chicago Sox here.

REPORT POLO IS GASPING FOR BREATH

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Polo, once the grandiose sports of the Golden 20s is gasping for breath in its U.S. birthplace—Long Island.

It is about to become the victim of changing times—teeming housing developments, super highways and 14-handicap golfers who don't like to be disturbed when they putt.

Roy Moriarty, a young New York motion picture executive who is an official of the U.S. Polo Assn. said today he didn't know how long he could keep the game going at Meadow Brook, one of the world's most famous playing fields.

Complain About Noise
"We play on Saturday afternoons during the summer," Moriarty explained. "The public address system annoys the golfers who are playing on the nearby course. They are complaining about the noise."

Because the polo field at Meadow Brook no longer pays its way, some members of the club are reported anxious to sell it.

The present polo field is not the original which once shook under the hooves of galloping ponies and the blasts from the sticks of such giants as Devereaux Milburn, Tommy Hitchcock, Winston Guest, Cecil Smith and the glamorous Cavanaugh brothers from the Argentine.

A few years ago a super highway snatched through the property, forcing a re-arrangement of both the polo field and golf course, which still are adjacent.

Once polo enthusiasts swarmed to the field for the matches, which drew worldwide attention. They paid from $5 to $15 for tickets.

Today's matches drew less than 1,000 a Sunday. Adults are charged $1 and children get in free.

OHIO STATE IS DEFEATED BY ALL-STARS

By FRANK PITMAN

DENVER (AP) — The NAIA Small-College All-Stars dished up an astounding upset in the opening round of the U. S. Olympic Basketball Trials Thursday night with a 76-69 victory over NCAA champion Ohio State.

The Buckeyes simply couldn't match the all-around excellence of the All-Stars. State's All-American Jerry Lucas scored 12 points in the first half but tallied only a free throw in the second.

Ohio State held a 42-39 lead at the halfway point. Then Jackie Moreland, 6-8 Louisiana Tech ace, turned on the heat and scored 12 points in the small college team's comeback.

The favored NCAA University All-Stars, led by Oscar Robertson and three other All-Americans, play Akron's AAU veterans tonight in the second round of the tryouts.

Robertson Scores 23

Robertson scored 23 points and guided the NCAA All-Stars to a 96-79 triumph over Bartlesville's (Okla.) AAU team in the first round of four games Thursday night at the Denver Coliseum.

Peoria's AAU champions rallied in the closing minutes to overcome the other team of NCAA stars, coached by Arad McCutchan, 91-89 in the hardest-fought contest of the first round.

Akron, runner-up to Peoria in last week's AAU tourney, conquered the Armed Forces All-Stars 82-76.

Peoria meets the NAIA All-Stars in the second round tonight. Robertson and the others making up the NCAA University outfit coached by Pete Newell of California were the talk of the town after handling Bartlesville with such ease.

The NCAA defensive experts—California's Darrell Imhoff, Indiana's Walt Bellamy and Robertson—blocked Bartlesville from inside shots and the Oklahomans couldn't find the range from outside.

The NAIA team, coached by Milton Jowers of Southwest Texas State, surprised Ohio State with a solid team attack built around Charlie Sharp, 6-5 Southwest Texas State ace who hit 17 points, and Moreland.

All eight teams in the competition here are playing three games. The champion of the trials will provide at least 5 but no more than 7 of the 12 players that will make up the U. S. team going to Rome late this summer.

Author, Erskine Caldwell, Claims Writers In Russia Are Living Like Capitalists

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Arts Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — If you want to live like a capitalist, says Erskine Caldwell, be a writer in Communist Russia.

Caldwell could have had plenty of experience living like a capitalist and so ought to know. One of our most successful authors, he has been translated into almost more languages than he can count — and in more countries than he had dreamt of, he discovered on a recent trip abroad with Mrs. Caldwell.

"If Pasternak is out of favor with the Russian government," Caldwell said, "it doesn't show."

Pasternak Estate
Pasternak has a dacha, or big estate, not far outside Moscow, and what is reported to be the largest duplex apartment in the city. And he enjoys this without evidently a penny of revenue from "Doctor Zhivago," his American best-seller. His income is from his translations from English, German and French.

"He collects royalties on Shakespeare," Caldwell reported wryly—translations being a major part of the Russian publishing picture.

For all Caldwell's success and fame, he is one of the least pretentious writers. Tall, broad-shouldered, his hair cut back almost to his scalp, personable, and a little heavier — because of the long days in trains and planes — than when his friends nicknamed him "Skinny," he is a confirmed traveler. He spent eight months in Russia in 1941 when he produced two wartime books with photographer Margaret Bourke-White and did two of his own. This time, on his second trans-Atlantic trip in 1959, he was beyond the Iron Curtain six days, on an Intourist tour though he had some rubles on credit in Moscow.

Collection Question
Could he collect? He could, but —

"I applied to the commissar of foreign writers of the Union of Soviet Writers. This official was a woman. She sent me to a magazine that had published me, and there they made up an accounting for me overnight."

He brought it back—Four pages typed in Russian indicating, he supposed, a few thousand copies of this, a few hundred thousand copies of that, or 50 stories and six books in six Russian languages. He has sold a million copies there, though he found no work in print, since the Russians do a single edition and do not go back to press. But he knew where he was on file: In the state-operated library containing all the books, among them 500,000 titles in English, recommended by the far-flung Red envoys. Even so the Russians can't read all about us, only qualified students are admitted.

The magazine office had the money for Caldwell, not a check but cash, about 2,000 rubles in a roll almost too thick for his pocket. He expected to stay only a few days, and asked for half of it. They made him take all. He managed to spend half, and then when he left the country had to surrender all the rest — so he got paid a royalty, which puts him ahead of many foreign writers, but he got the good of only half of it.

Rich Writers
What about these rich writers? "To be a writer you have to work through the Union. A man deciding he wants to do a book submits his idea and an outline to a Union-appointed committee of writers. If they disapprove, he's out of luck. If they approve, they give him a place to live in, and food, and the time he needs up to several years."

"He brings in the finished work. They ask for changes, or accept it as is, and recommend the size of printing, maybe 100,000 copies, and pay the writer handsomely. Then he's through. He doesn't even see the book. It doesn't get into bookstores, but is distributed directly to shops and factories. And it is read, or it had better be, for the merit system by which workers are promoted provides a good mark for every approved book they read, or say they've read."

Can men write this way? "They do." Have Russians always, under czars as well as now, confronted a comparable problem of censorship? "Yes." They did pretty well before. "There was Chekhov." Is the writing good now? "I can't read Russian, so I don't know."

Caldwell met writers and playwrights, but mostly he saw editors:

"A magazine editor invited us to dinner—my wife Virginia, a movie producer, a couple of others. The dinner began at 10, lasted till after midnight. First we ate cold cuts, all kinds. Then we were excused from the table, and thought it was all over, but 15 minutes later back we went for the second course—all hot. After another intermission, the third was sweets."

"This host had bookcases, a lot of books, a telephone in every room we were in, and a grand piano. He wore what was in effect a dinner jacket. It was more expensive entertaining, and in a more elaborate setting than I myself could manage in this country."

FRENCHMAN'S ART SELLING IN NEW YORK

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Arts Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Out of 31 paintings exhibited in a 57th Street gallery here by a young Frenchman, 29 were sold in two weeks, and it seemed certain that the other two would find purchasers before the show ended.

The artist is Olivier Debre; the gallery, Knoedler; the prices, from just under $1,000 to $3,000; the total — nobody cared to say. Debre had an exhibition last February in Washington in the Phillips Gallery, but this was his first one-man display in New York.

But that doesn't mean the name is unknown. His father is Dr. Michel Debre, founder and president of the French International Children's Center, and French representative to the child welfare group, known as UNICEF, of the United Nations. His brother is Michael Debre, premier of France.

He's Retiree
This is the sort of information that has to be dragged out of this personable and reticent young man, however. It was not mentioned in the catalog of his show, and it was not volunteered by the French Cultural Services when they called attention to his visit to this city.

"My being the premier's brother," he said to me in some embarrassment, "has nothing to do with my painting."

That's correct, for his painting makes its way very easily under its own power. He uses subjects taken from nature, though your eye needs to become familiar with his very personal vision before you appreciate how close his picture is to the object it pretends to represent.

Among the titles are "Woman of the Forest," "Small Beach," "Pitcher and Oranges," "Table and Objects," "The Bride," "The Gay Frost" and "The Chestnut Trees." They are painted in subtle, restrained, retiring color, and in squares and oblongs like something tapped on with the end of a broad putty knife.

Likes 'Patrons' Here
While he has seen quite a lot of American painting, what in a way impressed him most was not our painter but our patron:

"The bourgeois here — that is not the proper word, but I mean Road," among other successes, traveled as a volunteer for the United States Information Service. Thus he was officially received by our cultural attaches and introduced to local creative circles. He had the warmest praise for the officials he dealt with; he suspected, however, that they operated on a budget so small it hampered them seriously.

the ordinary citizen, the common man — needs painting more than his counterpart does in France, needs new, fresh, contemporary painting, that is. Perhaps he has more money to spend, but he does spend it, and especially on works being done right now."

The American paintings he saw abroad did not quite convince him, he recalled. The colors seemed a little harsh; but since he has been here and seen our light and our flowers, too, he is quick to correct that idea; the flower paintings now seem right to him.

On the whole he could not discover great differences between French and American painting: "I do not like to distinguish national qualities in art. They are easily exaggerated. But if there is a difference, it is perhaps that French painting is more gentle, more human, while in America there is a dynamism our art does not have."

Better in Architecture
"After all, there may not be so much difference in general quality. I like Jackson Pollock, and Rothko, among others I have seen here. But there is one thing you do better than we can, and that is architecture."

He did not have unqualified praise for the Frank Lloyd Wright structure here that will house the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, but he was very enthusiastic about the Seagram Building by Van Der Rohe and Johnson.

Born in Paris in 1920, and educated there, he set out in life to become an architect. But he had always painted, and this art took over. He fought in the French Resistance and was wounded in the Liberation of Paris. Looking unexpectedly young, he is an eager talker not only in French but also in English though he speaks it brokenly. He is married, has two children, paints in a Paris studio and has homes there, in Charentes and Touraine.

Camera News

An international array of new cameras and equipment went on display for the nation's camera store dealers recently in Philadelphia at the annual convention and trade show of the industry. As I walked around Convention Hall's two packed floors, it was almost like a pre-Christmas dream.

Here were mouth-watering photo items that you could inspect or look at but couldn't have — not just yet. Some are hand-made prototypes or pre-production models on public display for the first time. Others will be available shortly or in a few months as the production lines start rolling.

Great Interest
There was great interest in Kodak's newest high speed color film. Called High Speed Ektachrome, with an ASA index of 160 for daylight and a type B for artificial light with an index of 100, it will be available only in 35 mm roll film form around June.

Not long ago, General Electric announced the world's smallest flash bulb, the AG 1, which is about the size of a jelly bean. At the Philadelphia show the first automatic flash gun unit for the flash bulb was shown by Revere. Called the Flashmatic, it stores a clip of six of these tiny flashlamps, fires each one as needed. A lever ejects the used bulb into a compartment as it places a new bulb into position.

German Imports
A couple of unusual cameras from Germany were the Tele-Rolleiflex and the Brooks-Plaubel Veriwide 100. A matched pair of 135 mm f/4 Zeiss Sonnar lenses have been built into the familiar Rolleiflex camera frame with the regular automatic features to make the Tele-Rolleiflex. It should be of great interest to portrait specialists. The second camera was designed by Frank Rizzatti of Burleigh Brooks more than seven years ago but couldn't be built until the Schneider Super-Angulon lenses became a reality. It incorporates a 47 mm f/8 lens which covers a 100 degree view in a camera body wrapped around the film. It uses 120 roll film to make seven pictures each 2 1/4 by 3 3/4 inches. These cameras are slated for June delivery.

Over in the Leitz booth, crowds gathered to watch the unusual gimmick of the Pradovit automatic slide projector. Along with the push-button remote control slide changer, it had a remote control focusing button. Then it went a few steps further into the ultra-sonic atmosphere. By attaching a pickup unit into the projector, slides could be changed or refocused from a distance without cords or wires. The operator or lecturer in a large hall merely presses one of two different rubber bulbs several times. This emits an ultra-sonic sound wave too high for human audibility but transmits the power to make the changes.

Rejection Of Christ Caused Big Sorrow

REV. DR. NORMAN S. WOLF
Theme: "The Fateful Rejection"

Text: "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathered her chickens under her wings, and ye would not. Behold your house is left unto you desolate."

The keenest sorrow of Jesus' heart must have been caused by the stony-hearted hatred and rejection of the Jewish hierarchy and their mob-minded minions. Nor did His sorrow come to an end when they had done Him to death. The soul of Jesus has never ceased to mourn for men and nations, guilty of rejecting Him. The same violent, wilful opposition will continue to the end of time as the blackest, most fateful story among the annals of men.

The Christian world is now meditating reverently upon the significance of such rejection as it retraces His steps to Calvary. The Lenten and Passion Week, ending in Good Friday, urge men to seek a deepening of faith's understanding why the Son of man "bore our griefs and carried our sorrows"; why He "was wounded for our transgressions and bruised for our iniquities"; to cherish our heritage in Him more ardently, since "upon Him was laid the chastisement that makes us whole"; and to find the healing we need and can have because "by His stripes we are healed."

Hinges On Faith

Since the Christian religion and life have their origin in nothing but the revelation God made of Himself; fully and completely in His only begotten Son, it follows that the cardinal factor, determinative of the sincerity and the vitality of one's religious profession IS FAITH ALONE, in the revelation given in Jesus Christ "in whom dwells the fullness of the Godhead bodily." The demands He makes of all men are brought to a sharp focus at the beginning of His ministry, saying — "The time is fulfilled; repent ye (that is, "change your minds") and believe the Gospel."

The enemies of Jesus, in His day, were but the forerunners of a continuing, and of course an enlarging, company of mankind who have refused to be "gathered as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings."

If an article, published lately in a widely-circulated religious magazine be believed, the sin of rejecting God is a mounting, dangerous factor in world-wide affairs: — "For the first time since the Apostolic Age the Christian fellowship is a diminishing minority in the world. Still more appalling is the fact that no longer does the Church disclose the martyr spirit of a holy remnant prophetically addressing the multitudes and choosing death to compromise."

Whether rejection of Christ, the world's Savior, be viewed on a world-wide front or as an expression of an individual choice, the consequences, on Christ's word, will be the same, for He is at the same time the Judge of the whole earth. The fateful decree spoken against Jerusalem is not altered by the flight of centuries. How nearly it is come to realization! A world in awful revolution and easy defiance to its only Savior will not hear and understand. By such defiance, they shall realize what He knew the fate was sure to be — "Behold, your house is left unto you desolate." Or as the Phillips translation describes the fate of rejecting Christ — "Now, all you have is your house."

Building A New Life

Quite a thrill — building a new home! Day by day you watch it take shape. And somehow, you have the feeling that this new house will bring new life for you and your family.

But building a new life isn't as simple as building a new home. One just can't move out of the drab past into a sparkling future.

The life to which conscientious men and women aspire is built on foundations that cannot be laid in a week or two. Character, courage, consecration — these are concrete evidences of faithful years in the worship and service of God.

Today, where there are new houses there are new churches — and where there are old houses there are old churches. And through the portals of all the churches pass the millions of earnest families who are serious and happy about building a new life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

PA. BUSINESS SOARED TO NEW HEIGHTS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania's general business and industrial indexes soared to record heights in February, according to the Business Research Bureau of Pennsylvania State University.

General business activity, gaining 13 points over January, reached 205, highest since the 100-point base was established in 1947-49. The index of industrial activity reached 125, a record for February, the bureau said Thursday. It was the best for any month since last June.

362,000 Out Of Work
The bureau added:

"Unemployment as of the middle of February was 7.9 per cent of the civilian labor force. An estimated 362,000 persons were out of work of a force estimated at 4,560,800. This was better than in mid-January when 8.2 per cent of a slightly larger force were unemployed.

"Consumer prices held level in February at the January figure of 124.8. This was lower than it had been since September but was well above a year ago. Food prices dipped in February to the lowest point—117.1—since December 1957.

"Production of steel ingots and steel for castings in Pennsylvania was 2,876,049 net tons in February, which was about 10 per cent under January production but 19 per cent better than a year ago.

"Industrial power sales climbed to a record February high point, although only nominally better than last month. They were well above a year ago."

Scores Foes Of Civil Rights Bill

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Rep. John Dent (D-Pa.) today chided what he called reactionary legislators who blocked the Civil Rights Bill.

In an interview before scheduled addresses at Miners' Day celebrations at New Kensington and Arnold, Dent said:

"Most valuable time was lost in civil rights bickering. It is awful to spend so much time fighting to insure equality of man which was written in the Bill of Rights many years ago."

Rep. Dent was one of several speakers at the rallies. Parades and speeches featured the 62nd annual celebration.

Miners in the Allegheny-Kiski Valley joined miners across the nation in celebration of winning the eight-hour day. April 1 is a contract holiday for the miners.

EVANS TAKES OVER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Lewis E. Evans of Ebensburg today assumes direction of the State Department of Mines and Mineral Industries.

Gov. Lawrence Thursday named Evans acting secretary of mines until he can appoint him to full cabinet rank when the Legislature reconvenes in June. The $20,000-a-year post requires senate confirmation.

150 WORKERS STRIKE PLANT

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa. (AP)

—About 150 workers in the foil mill of the Aluminum Co. of America plant in New Kensington have walked off their jobs in a dispute over work assignments.

A company spokesman called the strike unauthorized and said no formal union grievance has been filed.

About 5,000 other production workers remain on the job. No picketing was reported.

The company said the walkout began shortly before 3 p. m. Thursday when 10 workers were assigned to replace rolls of metal in the mill. They said the work should be done by maintenance men.

The walkout then spread to about 50 men on each of the plant's three shifts.

Tasty Food, Pleasant Dining Room Enjoyed By Five Star Patrons

Tasty "home cooking" served promptly in a pleasant dining room — those are some of the inducements to dine at the Five Star Restaurant four miles south of here along the Emmitsburg Rd.

Gettysburg folk and residents of this area are going to the Five Star Restaurant in ever-increasing numbers and the restaurant caters to a large tourist trade from its vantage point along busy Route 15.

Its attractive new dining room, furnished in Early American and brightened by red and white checkered tablecloths, makes a pleasant spot to dine with the family and it is attracting parties and clubs for dinner events. The restaurant makes a specialty of catering to banquets, private dinner parties and wedding receptions.

Handling its expanding volume of business from a modern and greatly enlarged kitchen, the popular eating place is open Monday through Thursday from 7 a.m. until 9 p.m., while on weekends its stays open until 10 p.m.

Enlarged Last Year
The original section of the restaurant was opened for business July 15, 1955, and last summer the big, new dining room was put into operation, more than doubling the previous capacity. Ground had been broken in May for the 40x40-foot addition across the south side of the original establishment. The kitchen at the rear was tripled in size during the remodeling and enlargement.

Fred A. and Elsie Nimtz came here from New Albany, Pa., where he had worked for Du Pont. They bought three acres of land along the east side of the Emmitsburg Rd. from Sidney Simmons, a part of the old Weikert farm.

Year-around Comfort

Their knotty-pine paneled restaurant opened for business in mid-July of that year on the day their third child was born. Since then they have catered to a steady tourist business with a growing local clientele, especially on Saturdays and Sundays and for evening meals.

There is a soda fountain and sandwiches are on sale so that Five Star is able to supply its customers with anything from a sandwich to a full course dinner on short notice.

The new dining area with its big picture windows, its air conditioning for year-around comfort and its colonial atmosphere offers separate dining space for clubs or large parties that require a private dining room is reached through a new central entrance constructed during the alterations and opening into both of the restaurant's dining areas.

Five Nimtz "Stars"

An expanding souvenir business occupies a space near the entrance way.

The name for the eating place not only indicates the establishment is top notch in quality but it gives each of the "five stars" in the Nimtz family a place in the business.

Mr. and Mrs. Nimtz have three children, two sons and a daughter. The youngest is William who will be five next July 15 and was born the day the restaurant opened for business.

LOOK TO PILOT FOR CAUSE OF PLANE'S BLAST

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Air Force investigators will rely on the memory of a burned, shocked first lieutenant for details surrounding a jet bomber explosion here.

The B47 blew up over the city at dawn Thursday, raining death and destruction over a wide residential area.

The only survivor from the plane was 1st Lt. Thomas G. Smoak, 26, of Richmond, Va., the co-pilot. He parachuted to safety but three other airmen died. Two civilians were killed in their homes.

Smoak was in serious condition in a Little Rock hospital suffering from burns and shock.

The plane took off into clear skies on a training flight at 5:56 a.m., Thursday from Little Rock Air Force Base. Ten minutes later it exploded at 3,500 feet with the force of a giant bomb.

The main sections of the plane fell in two locations about two miles apart. In one seven houses were destroyed by fire. Jimmy Hollabaugh, 29, burned to death. In the other section the fuselage of the B47 plummeted into a house killing Mrs. Andrew L. Clark, 63.

In all eight homes were destroyed. The Air Force said 11 were severely damaged and between 80 and 90 others slightly damaged.

The airmen killed were Lt. Col. Reynolds J. Watson, 43, Athens, Ga.; Capt. Herbert J. Aldridge, 37, San Antonio, Tex., and Staff Sgt. K. E. Brose, 25, Kewanee, Ill.

U. S. EDUCATION BEATS EUROPE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—American education is superior to that of Western Europe, says Dr. Lawrence G. Derthick, U. S. Commissioner of Education.

"The American school system is aimed at developing all of the talents of all of the children," he told 1,650 school directors and administrators Thursday night.

"I believe Americans want their schools to develop not only the intellect of students, but also their characters," he added.

"England and Sweden are introducing American concepts into their systems."

Dr. Derthick cited figures to back up his contention of the superiority of American schools.

He said there are more national honor students in America than entire graduating classes per capita in Western Europe. And he noted that 56 of 119 Nobel Prize winners since 1930 have been native-born Americans.

Dr. Derthick spoke at a school board banquet sponsored by the tri-state area school study and the school of education, University of Pittsburgh.

SIX PERISH IN VIRGINIA FIRE

LYNNHAVEN, Va. (AP)—Two women and four children died early today in a fire-swept frame home on Virginia's coast.

Firemen said the six, burned only slightly, apparently suffocated. The children ranged in age from 8 months to 5 years.

Victims were Mrs. J. C. Bohlander and two of her three children; and Mrs. Daniel Bohlander, a sister-in-law, and her two children. The husbands, both Navy men, were away at the time. The Daniel Bohlander family was visiting.

Mrs. J. C. Bohlander's eldest child, a boy of 9, survived the fire. Authorities said he was sleeping downstairs and discovered the flames.

He ran upstairs and tried unsuccessfully to rouse the others, then raced to a neighbor's home to summon help.

France Fires Another Small Plutonium Bomb

By RICHARD K. O'MALLEY

PARIS (AP)—France today held its second nuclear test explosion under the nose of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The blast in the western Sahara constituted another pointed French rebuff to the Soviet Premier, meeting today and Saturday with President Charles De Gaulle outside Paris for final talks. Khrushchev leaves for Moscow Sunday.

The explosion also underlined De Gaulle's insistence that the Soviet Union as well as the Western allies recognize France as their equal in world councils.

There was no immediate public reaction from Khrushchev, who was secluded with De Gaulle at Rambouillet, the presidential chateau outside Paris.

Technical, scientific or cultural agreements may be announced before Khrushchev ends his 11-day state visit. But no French-Soviet political accord is expected. The Soviet Premier himself said after his first talks in Paris last week that he and De Gaulle were "at opposite poles" on international matters, and they were likely to remain there.

Blast Is Successful
De Gaulle's government announced that the nuclear blast, just before dawn at the Reggane test site 1,500 miles south of Oran, was successful and all safety precautions were taken.

A communique said the device exploded was a plutonium bomb of much smaller size than the first French plutonium bomb set off Feb. 13 and of "limited power." The first bomb had a force of about 70,000 tons of TNT, about three times more powerful than the first U.S. atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima in 1945.

The bomb presumably was mounted on a steel tower, as the first one was, and the government indicated France still does not have an atomic device portable enough to be dropped from a plane or propelled by a missile.

"WHO DID IT?" DRAGSTHROUGH LONG TV HOUR

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Attorney Joseph Welch suggested in a preface to Thursday night's new "Hour of Great Mysteries," series that accept "The Bat" as a sort of period piece in the spirit with which we view early silent movies.

But even when forewarned, this NBC adaptation of a 35-year-old stage play by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood was hard to take. An hour is pretty long for a spoof and "The Bat" was perfectly ridiculous and hardly a great mystery.

The plot, however, had a little of everything. Gallons of rain, flashes of lightning, screams, a fellow running around dressed like a bat, a comedy maid, an inscrutable oriental butler and bodies falling out of closets. The only virtue the show had was that the butler wasn't the villain.

Helen Hayes and Jason Robards Jr. among others, played it straight and worked hard. But do you know what Mr. Welch called the show? A who did it, that's what he called it.

Favorites Hold Up

CBS has tapped Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri for its April 17 "Face the Nation" session — his debut as an avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination. The latest (Nielsen) ratings have our familiar favorites still up in the first places: "Wagon Train," "Gunsmoke," "Have Gun, Will Travel."

Two Can Vote On Big Bond Issue

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — A million-dollar bond election will be held Saturday and only two persons are eligible to vote in it.

The election is open to resident property owners in Galveston County Drainage Dist. No. 4 Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Mendoza are the only residents in the marsh-like, 125-acre area near the Galveston Airport.

The money would be used to build an artificial lake that would drain the area into a bayou. About 25 property owners want to sell their land to a development company.

AEC Plans Series Of 1960 Tests

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A series of non-nuclear explosions next month will launch the Atomic Energy Commission's 1960 test program at the vast atomic test site near here.

The tests will provide information for the Plowshare Program, a study of peaceful uses of nuclear explosives. They will last several months. The AEC said Thursday "The tests are expected to provide information on the effects of depth of burial, weight of charge and type of rock on crater size and shape."

has decided that those enjoyable all-cartoon commercials "are the least effective kind." Apparently we chuckle, find them unobjectionable—but don't run out and buy the product. That Barbara Stanwyck anthology series which has been talked about for several seasons may finally materialize on NBC next season. "Person to Person" has an all-French but no France show for next Friday — Simone Signoret and husband Yves Montand and movie director Roger Vadim and wife Annette. However, one comes from Hollywood and the other was taped in Rome.

Recommended tonight: Telephone Hour, NBC, 8:30-9:30—with Jose Turbi, Gregor Piatigorsky, Jerome Hines, Nora Kaye and Mia Slavenska; "Lucy Meets the Mustache," CBS, 9-10 — the final Lucy-Desi comedy of a long series; Person to Person, CBS, 10:30-11—a visit to Vatican City.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Obey those traffic lights. The Green says "GO... WHEN IT'S SAFE"; the Red warns "WAIT!" Keep an eye on any cars closely, also; some drivers ignore or fail to see the lights and you might be jeopardized by stepping out without looking. Once the Green says "GO" walk across the street briskly. Don't run! You might trip and be injured.

York Springs

YORK SPRINGS — David E. Stary has returned to New Orleans after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Stary.

The York Springs 4-H Club will meet at the home of Raymond Leer on Friday at 7 p.m. There will be election of officers, selection of projects by the members and a discussion of ways and means. Any children still interested in joining the club may do so by either attending the meeting or getting in touch with the local leaders, Mrs. Paul Middour or Raymond Leer.

Paul Middour, York Springs R. 1, who has been sent to Missile School in Tucson, Arizona, by the Air Force, is sightseeing while in the area. Last weekend he went to Nogales, Mexico, and this past weekend he visited the Grand Canyon.

William Coulson son, of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coulson, who is attending Anderson College, Indiana, spent the weekend at the home of a student at Riverside, Ill., a suburb of Chicago.

Mrs. Paul Middour and son, Paul Jr., were in Hagerstown last Saturday evening to attend the annual banquet of the Blue Ridge German Shepherd Club.

Mrs. Paul Bubb was admitted to the Harrisburg Hospital last week and submitted to major surgery on Friday.

Mrs. Iva Mumper remains a patient in the Annie Warner Hospital, Gettysburg.

PANEL URGES IKE TO BREAK SCHOOL ISSUE

WASHINGTON (AP) — A panel from President Eisenhower's own conference on youth problems today urged him to throw the full weight of his office behind racial integration of all public schools.

A statement which said he showed a lack of executive leadership in the thorny issue was ruled out of order as editorial. It did not become part of the official record of the meeting.

The White House Conference on Children and Youth prepared to close up shop and go home for another 10 years after its 7,570 voting delegates had adopted about 700 far-ranging recommendations.

Those recommendations were to be summarized for the delegates in a closing general session today. They have no binding force, but become part of the conference record for later discussion by the state and local groups represented here.

The delegates went on record Thursday in warm support of the sit-in demonstrations being staged at segregated lunch counters by Negro students in the South.

They also asked federal and state action to reopen public schools which have been closed to avoid integration—a direct reference to Prince Edward County, Va.

These recommendations, for the most part, were passed with little or no objection from Southern delegates—but this was a procedural matter. Most Southerners, by personal choice, did not participate in the forum sessions where such matters were under discussion.

Whispering Wife Proves Expensive

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — George Woods, 36, said his wife talked a lot on the telephone and was "always whispering."

His wife testified Thursday that he took drastic steps to stop her. She said he grabbed the phone from her and ripped it from the wall, interrupting a call to her sister.

Mrs. Woods called police on a neighbor's telephone, and a magistrate ordered Woods to pay the telephone company for repairs.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Sheraton Hotel blew a fuse trying to help census takers.

The hotel placed a U.S. census forms into each guest's mail box Thursday night. Then it switched on lights in individual rooms, indicating each guest had a message.

The load was too much, and a fuse blew.

Census Takers Won't Take "No" For An Answer Today

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Census takers won't take "no" for an answer as the nation's biggest quiz game begins today in Pennsylvania and elsewhere.

Refuse to answer and it could cost you a $100 fine or 30 days imprisonment or both. The U. S. Constitution (Article I) requires citizens to answer questions in the big count every 10 years.

People who make false entries on their census sheets are subject to the same penalties.

Pa. Over 11 Million

Edgar L. Bryan, in charge of the census for most of the state, has predicted the state population will show an increase of 7.9 per cent.

That would put the population at 11,327,000. There were 10,498,012 in 1950.

The final total won't be known until around Dec. 1 when final figures must be presented to President Eisenhower. A first report, though, will be made late this month or early in May. This total will include cities of 10,000 or more.

Dipped In 1920

Until the last census in 1950, Pennsylvania's population had been increasing less and less since 1920. The census of 1910 found the population rising 21.6 per cent.

In 1920, however, the increase dipped to 13.8 in 1930 it was 10.5 and in 1940 there were only 2.8 per cent more people in the state. The figure rose six per cent in 1950.

The decade, 1790 (the date of the first census) to 1890, showed the greatest population "explosion" in Pennsylvania history. During that time the population grew by 38.7 per cent. From then until 1920 the increases remained fairly constant, the population rising on the average of 25 per cent each decade.

To Take 2 Weeks

This year's census is expected to take about two weeks. Census officials said residents who have the advanced report forms filled out when the census taker calls can expect to spend about eight minutes at the door. Those who haven't filled out the forms will have to spend about 20 minutes with the worker.

The final reports, showing such things as housing data and family characteristics, will be published in 1961.

Crossed Wires Are Tough On Police

PITTSBURGH, Kan. (AP)—The police department's telephone system went out and someone jokingly suggested burglars had cut the wires and were at work in a bank.

The burglar alarm from the State Bank started ringing. The desk officer sent all cars to the bank and all available men at headquarters headed there on the run.

The burglar alarm from the First National Bank started ringing.

Then the telephone company's test room called to beg pardon for getting the wires crossed.

OIL DRILLING ON MOVIE LOTS IS PAYING OFF

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The movie companies are finding out there's more than one way to make a studio pay off.

Gone are the days when the lots produced only movies. Now, adds you'll find them also producing real estate developments, TV shows, filmed commercials and—oil.

Pioneer in oil drilling among the studios is 20th Century-Fox. The lot is sitting squarely on top of the Beverly Hills oil field. Oil concerns drilled in shallow zones there for many years until the fastidious Beverly hillfolk called a halt.

When "Silent Sentinels" studios is 20th Century-Fox was seeking ways to sustain its fortunes in the face of declining theater business, the matter of oil came up. Universal Consolidated Oil Co. proposed a mode of operation that would placate neighboring residents.

After much convincing, the oil firm got the city to approve drilling by what are called silent sentinels. These are oil derricks that are the ultimate in silence and beauty (but then, how beautiful can an oil derrick be?)

"The derricks are entirely enclosed in a 1 1/2-inch fiber glass blanket with a plastic cover," explained oil executive C. G. Williams. "The studio selected the color—a blue that blends into the sky so it won't be seen in long shots."

The method is expensive, as is Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will take place. Saturday, 8:15 a.m., mass; 4 to 4:45 and 7 to 7:45 p.m., confessions will be heard; 8 p.m., weekly public party in the parish hall, when prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be available. Sunday, 7:30 a.m., mass; 9 a.m., Christian Doctrine for the elementary children of the parish attending public school; 10 a.m., mass; a nursery will be conducted during the late mass; 7 p.m., evening service including devotions in honor of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. A mission will be conducted in the parish April 3-10 with mass each morning and service each evening, and the mission will be the Rev. Father Lynch. The time for the mission services will be announced later.

the slant drilling required to reach oil under nearby residential areas. But all parties are delighted with the results. Twenty-eight wells have been drilled from two sites; all but one are producing.

Now MGM is getting into the act. The Culver City lot, but a few miles from the Inglewood Oil field, made a deal with Continental Oil Co. The first well started producing 225 barrels per day at 9,000 feet and another is being drilled.

The MGM derrick is covered with a quilt and painted the color of a smoggy sky." Continental spokesman Olen Lane said the firm also has an option to drill at the nearby Desilu lot. That could mean more loot for Desi Arnaz and Lucille Ball to split up.

LAKEHEND, Fla. (AP)—Bill Dewitt, Detroit Tiger president, says he will talk with General Manager Frank Lane of the Cleveland Indians to see if Lane is interested in a trade involving catcher Russ Nixon.

Nixon is the left-handed hitting catcher the Indians sent to the Boston Red Sox in the controversial deal that brought on Sammy White's retirement.

The Tigers would be willing to part with catcher Lou Berberet and Lane also has expressed interest in rookie third baseman Steve Demter.

SOME BONUS CLAIMANTS ARE DOUBTFUL

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Korean Bonus Review Board should look into cases of questionable residence, Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith suggested today.

Smith said there are numerous pending cases of questionable eligibility based on doubts about the applicants' status as a Pennsylvania resident at the time of entering service.

The three-man board was set up last week by Adj. Gen. A. J. Drexel Biddle Jr., to review applications of veterans who spent more than 30 days of their service time in confinement.

Cites Seven Cases Smith claimed the Korean Bonus Bureau has been clearing for payment cases involving doubtful residence eligibility.

He listed seven cases without identifying the applicants. "Our auditors have been unable to find satisfactory evidence that these claimants were bonafide residents of Pennsylvania at the time of entry into the nation's armed forces," Smith said in a statement.

"While we are aware that the decision of the adjutant general is final on matters of eligibility, we believe these doubtful cases should be approved by the Review Board before they are cleared finally for payments."

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Bureau of Motor Vehicles will remain open Saturday to handle any last minute demand for 1960 registrations, revenue Secretary Charles M. Dougherty said today.

Dougherty granted a four-day extension of Thursday night's deadline for obtaining new stickers and plates. The new deadline is midnight, Monday.

The Motor Vehicles Bureau will open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday.

FBI Chief Says Men Admitted Slaying Mack Parker, Negro

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI furnished Mississippi authorities with admissions from some of the men who took part in the Mack Charles Parker lynching, testimony of FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover disclosed today.

Parker, a Negro, was taken from jail in Poplarville, Miss., last April 24 and slain. A county grand jury refused to investigate. A federal grand jury returned no indictment.

Hoover, reviewing the case recently for a House Appropriations subcommittee, disclosed for the first time that his agents had obtained statements as well as admissions from some of the men who took part in the Mack Charles Parker lynching, testimony of FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover disclosed today.

Mrs. Livingston Is Buried Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Grace Livingston, 42, wife of John H. Livingston, Gettysburg R. 2, who died Monday at the Warner Hospital, were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Wilson Funeral Home in Fairfield. The Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church here, officiated.

Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery. The pallbearers were Edgar A. McDonnell, George and Joseph Pecher, John Fissel, Edwin Gillelan and Roy Summers. Mrs. Livingston was a daughter of Mrs. Dora Leister Bollinger, Bigham, Gettysburg, and the late Harry H. Bollinger.

Surviving the participants.

"We were able to establish the identity of a number of members of the mob who participated in the abduction of Parker and obtained admissions from some of them," he said.

Hoover, whose testimony was released today, said all the FBI's information was turned over to state authorities when it was found the kidnapping and murder occurred entirely within Mississippi so that no federal statute was involved.

"We received the fullest cooperation from Gov. J. P. Coleman, as well as the Mississippi State Highway Patrol," he said. "We encountered open hostility from some officials in the Poplarville area as well as from some of the townspeople."

Parker was in jail awaiting trial on a charge of raping a pregnant white housewife when the mob stormed the jail and dragged him away.

If Tires I remains in orbit 90 days as anticipated, it could prove useful in supplying information on hurricanes spawned in the Caribbean. The hurricane season starts in June.

The space agency emphasized that Tires I is only an experimental meteorological satellite—one of two to be launched this year. The second, expected late this summer, will be a more sophisticated model which will carry infra-red radiation detectors to map relative temperatures of the earth's surface.

The name Tires stands for television and infra-red observation satellite.

"The first two Tires satellites," an official commented, "are designed to determine the effectiveness of weather satellites to observe and report to ground stations world-wide weather patterns as they generate and develop."

Plan Network of Stations

"If they are successful, we plan a network of polar-orbiting weather stations which will provide almost instantaneous weather reporting."

Tires I looks much like an oversized hatbox, 42 inches in diameter and 19 inches high. Its top and sides are almost completely covered by 9,000 solar cells which are designed to trap the sun's rays and convert them to energy to run the satellite's batteries. Four transmitting antennas extend from the bottom and a single receiving antenna from the top.

The satellite was aimed at a circular orbit about 400 miles above the earth, to sweep through an area stretching from 50 degrees south latitude to 50 degrees north. In the Western Hemisphere this extends roughly from Santa Cruz, Argentina, to Montreal, Canada.

Tires I will spin for stabilization, so its cameras will not always point at earth. The cameras will be commanded by ground signals to operate only when they are viewing the earth and when the area to be photographed is in sunlight.

Radio devices will pinpoint the exact location of the satellite

MOSCOW (AP)—A cartoon in the Soviet army newspaper "Red Star" today depicted an army officer saying "NATO has exclusively defensive aims." Behind him the calendar showed the date—April 1. And the caption explained, "It is the only day when such statements evoke no surprise."

Girl Scout News

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 44 met Thursday afternoon at St. James Lutheran Church. Work on the dancers badge was turned in. It included two weeks of dancing in their meeting room with Miss Kay Smith; nine weeks of dancing at the high school under the recreation program with Miss Donna Spence, and dancing at the armory. The girls also received an invitation from Troop 22 to attend a dance April 29 at the Country Club in connection with their badge. Plans were made for the girls to go to Pape's Convalescent Home during the Easter vacation to distribute baskets, flowers and to sing songs. The girls have done this for the past five years. They also discussed plans for a weekend at Camp Happy Valley May 6, 7 and 8. In connection with the my troop badge, Barbara Zeigler, Karen Caulfield, Susanne Reimer, Beverly Phiel and Susan Markley spoke on the history of Girl Scouting. Treats were brought by Caryn Caldwell and Beverly Phiel in connection with their home-makers badge. The leaders were Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mrs. John Caldwell and Mrs. Arthur Phiel.

FIND LOST DOG

Borough police today are searching for the owner of a young German shepherd dog found this morning on the Gettysburg College campus. The dog was described as "very friendly," and had a light green collar to which was attached a chain leash. The dog is "predominantly black with brown markings."

Colored Contact Lenses, Violet Or Green Face Powders Latest In Style

By DOROTHY ROE
Lines for a poet of the Strange
Sixties:

"Your eyes are like rubies,
your lips are like grass, your skin is like violets, my rainbow lass."

This is the new beauty prescription for glamor girls of the space age, and no fooling. Already on the market, and highly touted by experts in these matters, are colored contact lenses, violet or green face powder and lipsticks in tradition-shattering shades of green, blue, violet and yellow as well as the old-hat rosy hues.

Over 100 Colors
Eyes to match your costume color are the latest to hit the fashion spectrum, introduced at a full-dress fashion show in New York this week. Colors available in the standard line of contact lenses include: yellow, red, pink, orange, tangerine, tiger gold, three greens, lavender, orchid and jet. More than 100 other colors may be had by special order.

It may be confusing if a girl has blue eyes in the daytime and shows up with red eyes at night, but you must admit that it will be interesting. Even more startling, and recommended only for daring types, would be the mix-match trend—one red eye and one green, for instance.

Traffic Stoppers
Just to make things more confusing, there are the new face-powder and foundation shades of green and lavender, currently promoted by some of the country's top cosmetic houses, and the off-beat lipstick colors, also off and running.

When it comes to hair, of course, the solar spectrum is the limit.

Add to the picture the current widespread use of colored eye-shadow, mascara and eyebrow pencil, and the new style American beauty can stop traffic anywhere in the world.

ADVANCE STEP IN CANCER CURE

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Vaccines made from their own cancers have helped and are helping a few cancer patients.

The vaccines tested in Dallas, Tex., and Buffalo, N.Y., mark one hopeful approach to a goal of making humans far more resistant to cancer.

Once in a rare while, people spontaneously recover from cancer. There are numerous other reasons to think the body has defense systems which could be strengthened, if scientists can learn how.

Several new steps toward boosting immunity were described to an American Cancer Society seminar for science writers.

The Dallas research brought some benefits to a few men given vaccines made from their own tumors. Most significantly, nine men treated showed an increase in antibodies, substances in the blood which can attack the cancer cells.

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Photographs of various unexplained markings found on the body of 16-year-old Maryann Mitchell were sent Thursday to FBI laboratories in Washington for comparison tests with sketches made by Elmo Smith, 39, her accused slayer. Smith is in Montgomery County jail awaiting trial.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

Overlooking the harbor of Gloucester, Mass., is a statue of a fisherman with the inscription, "They that go down to the sea in ships," from the 107th Psalm, which reads, "These see . . . his wonders in the deep."

The Americans of Portuguese ancestry who sail most of the Gloucester vessels today manifest their faith. A statue of Our Lady of Good Voyage sails with them in their pilot houses. In her honor, the church of Our Lady of Good Voyage is named, which is known internationally as the fishermen's shrine. When a tuna clipper sails from California, her skipper usually writes or wires the shrine, where prayers are said. Added to the knowledge and skill of the fishermen is the strength of faith.

"Our Lady is a comfort on a night like this," said a Captain Joe of Gloucester during a northeast gale, as he and his mate took turns at the wheel and prayed. When skippers approach harbor after a hazardous or bountiful voyage, they radio-telephone ahead to have the statue of Our Lady on top of the church illuminated, and she becomes a beacon of faith guiding the ships home. After the voyage, fishermen share in the profits, setting aside a portion for charities, called "God's share".

Eight Hospitals Quit Blue Cross

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Eight Catholic hospitals withdrew from Blue Cross at midnight Thursday night.

"We have made every possible effort to reach an equitable agreement with Blue Cross, but without success," said sister-administrators of the hospitals.

As the deadline came, 36 other hospitals extended their contracts with Blue Cross another three months, the fourth quarterly extension since last June 30.

The dispute, two and a half years old, hinges on how the hospitals are to be paid for services rendered Blue Cross patients.

The Catholic hospitals wanted to be paid on the basis of what they charged Blue Cross patients.

Blue Cross, however, said charges to patients vary so much it could not afford to pay the hospitals their listed charges.

MOURNERS GET FULL DINNER

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A retired housekeeper bequeathed the mourners at her funeral a surprise full-course dinner.

Millie J. Snyder, 86, of Cheltenham, left $43,000 in cash and 180 shares of American Telephone and Telegraph stock, according to her will filed for probate Thursday. She died March 24.

The will directed that "dinner be provided for those persons attending my funeral."

On Tuesday solemn requiem mass was sung at the Church of the Presentation in Cheltenham. Thirty-six relatives and friends attended. Half of them went to the dinner.

Miss Snyder had served as a housekeeper at the rectory of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in Margate, N. J.

After bequests to relatives and

Roy Sievers Is Sought By Sox

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Chicago White Sox Vice President Hank Greenberg plans to have further talks with Cal Griffith, Washington Senators president, on an alternate deal for slugger Roy Sievers.

Sox Manager Al Lopez nixed a deal earlier that would have sent catcher Earl Battey and infielder Sammy Esposito to Washington for Sievers. The Sox, who don't want to part with Esposito, reportedly have made a counter proposal offering Battey, utility infielder Chico Carrasquel and another second liner.

It was reported Griffith would go for a package that included Battey and Don Mincher, a rookie first baseman.

provisions for her funeral and the dinner, the remainder of the estate went to three Philadelphia Catholic charities.

DIRKSEN WILL COMPROMISE ON VOTE BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen expressed willingness today to agree to "a moderate compromise" to settle the dispute over voting registration procedures in the civil rights bill.

Talk of compromise came also from Sen. John A. Carroll (D-Colo.), who has offered a substitute for a controversial amendment that has stalled action on the House-passed measure.

The amendment, by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), would permit county and state registration officials to sit in on the hearings by voting referees named to handle complaints of Negro discrimination. A major dispute developed over whether the county and state officials could take an active part.

Carroll said he plans to offer a modification of his original proposal for open but uncontested hearings, and believes it will be acceptable to all sides. He declined to give any details of his modified plan.

Dirksen told newsmen, however, he was unwilling to accept any requirement for public hearings. "I think we've got the votes to beat the Kefauver amendment and any variations of it," Dirksen told newsmen.

He said, however, he would be willing to go along with a moderate compromise if supporters of the amendment would accept it.

JOIN VOTE PROBE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Ten state policemen will join in an investigation of vote fraud charges in Philadelphia starting Monday.

They were assigned Thursday by State Police Commissioner Frank G. McCartney to work with Deputy Atty. Gen. Victory H. Wright, in a state probe.

The police investigators will be drawn from troops in Philadelphia, Lancaster, Reading and in Bethlehem.

Last year 91,820 tourists visited Israel, establishing a record for the little nation.
